Christmas Concert Slated for Dec. 12

St. Joseph's annual display of musical talent, the Christmas Music Festival, will be presented Dec. 12 at 8:00 o'clock in the College Theatre. The Glee Club, Choir, a group from the Hammond Extension, and the College Band will sing and play selections which will appeal to a wide variety of musical tastes.

First to appear on the program will be the Glee Club, directed by Father Lawrence Heiman, singing its theme song, the Alma Mater, "Just A'wearyin' for You," and "Clancy Lowered the Boom." The St. Joe Quartet, composed of Lou White, Miro Pregelj, Bob Shanley, and Ed Kafka, will make its initial appearance of the year, singing "White Christmas," following which Pregelj, accompanied by the Glee Club, will solo on "A Slovenian Christmas Carol," arranged by Ed Kafka. This will be followed by the Glee Club in three songs, including a Negro Spiritual, a selection from Jerome Kern's "Show Boat," and a novelty number.

Extension Chorus Here

The Hammond Extension Chorus will then take the stage to sing, "The Christmas Song," and "Twelve Days of Christmas," and will join forces with the Glee Club to form the background for a duet of "Emmanuel," to be sung by Miss Evelyn Sabo and Mr. Bernard Quebek, of the Hammond Extension.

The College Chorus, of 90 voices, will close the choral half of the program with the Offertory of the First Mass of Christmas, "Winter Wonderland," and two Yuletide carols.

Band Features Solos

With Father Clement Kuhns directing, the College Band will present the second half of the evening's entertainment, opening with the well-known "Strike Up the Band." Other numbers include, the "Monterey Overture," "Syncopated Clock," "Finale Overture," and "Dizzy Fingers." Instrumental solos will highlight the second half of the program, with Frank Ryan playing "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," on his trumpet; Ed Kafka and his clarinet in "Concertino Ridicolo," followed by Floyd Braun performing a "Baritone Solo."

The band will conclude its portion of the program with "They Didn't Believe Me," and a medley of Christmas tunes.

Student Constitution Ratified

ON TOMORROW'S MENU

STUFF Reporter Finds Turkeys Must Be Handled with Delicacy

By TOM SUESS

540 turkeys—count 'em—540, and they're all eventually to go into the hungry mouths of St. Joe students, teachers, and the other members of this community. Interested in just what process takes place to bring these browned delicacies before us on the Tuesday evening before Thanksgiving, this reporter sojourned back into the wilds of Turkeyville itself, the St. Joseph's poultry farm, located behind Drexel hall. There we talked with George Schuster, head of the farm, and asked him to give us a little of the inside story on the birds.

70 Club Mothers Hear Fr. Gross

Seventy members of the St. Joseph's College Mother's Club of Chicago were present at a luncheon-meeting held in Lewis Towers, Chicago, last Saturday afternoon, and heard short addresses by the Very Rev. Raphael H. Gross, president of the college, and Fathers Rufus Esser, Joseph Otte, and Richard Baird, of the college faculty.

In a short business meeting, with Mrs. Tad O'Connell, president, presiding, a constitution was

Student Union Inaugurated at Beginning of Second Semester

At a special meeting, called Nov. 5, the Student Council, by a vote of 11-2, decided that the recently-approved student constitution would go into effect at the start of the second semester.

Kaufman-Hart Play Presented by CP's; 38 Actors in Cast

"The Man Who Came to Dinner," the Columbian Players' first offering of the school year, was presented before large audiences in the College Theatre last Sunday and Monday nights. With Joe Konkell in the title role, this modern-day Kaufman-Hart comedy afforded an evening of fun and laughter for all who attended.

With outsiders in from Chicago and other neighboring cities, the Players, under Mr. Ralph Capuccilli's direction, portrayed this humorous tale of the visit of a nationally-known celebrity to a small town socialite's home, the subsequent fracturing of his hip on the front doorstep, and his hilarious two-week recuperation at the home of his surprised host.

Besides Konkell, leading roles were played by Betty Frank, as Maggie Cutler; Kitty Ffrench, Lorraine Sheldon; Chuck Lenertz, Bert Jefferson; Mary Ann Boreczky, Mrs. Stanley; and Jim Plate, Mr. Stanley. In lesser parts were Dallis Kelsey, Marianne Claussen, Mary Wrenn, Phil Menna, Geraldine Hletko, Emerson Strace, Marietta Battaglia, Buel Adams, George Kuhn, John Good, and Gerry Gladu, with Eleanor Sheridan, Virginia Horvath, Don Schlader, Don Nowicki, Vince Baldassari, John Kelly, Terry MacCarthy, Ralph Neff, Dick Kotheimer, John Trucco, and Bill Bassett taking minor roles.

Most of the members aided in the construction of the set, under the direction of Joe Konkell and Dick Kotheimer, and the combined efforts of the Players brought forth the completely modern living-room scene that served as setting for the play. Prop men for the production were headed by Don Heuer and Don Nowicki, with Don Clark handling the electrical problems. Frank Pavalko was in charge of publicity for the production.

After defeating, 7-6, a motion to put the constitution into immediate force, the members of the Council approved the new constitution, but withheld its operational effects until the next semester begins, Feb. 4. In the meantime, a committee under the co-chairmanship of Lou White and Vladimir Pregelj, will work on the constitution with an eye to studying it and to readying possible amendments to iron out certain kinks in the document. The constitution itself is tentative for one year.

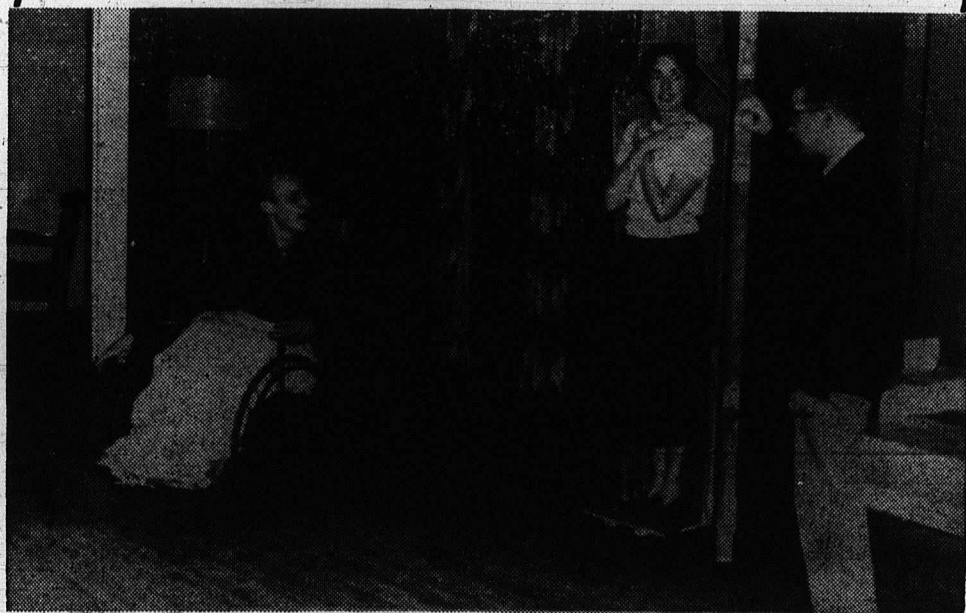

Principal changes from the old Student Council constitution include:

1. The establishment of a Student Union embracing all members of the student body. All students will be governed by the new constitution.
2. The assessment of five dollars per semester, per student, for the Student Activities Fund.
3. The affiliation of the Union with NFCCS.
4. The election by student vote of four of the nine members of the Student Council, which will govern the Union. Other Student Council members will include the four class presidents and the Senior Delegate to NFCCS.
5. The establishment of an Inter-Club Committee, composed of the heads of all clubs on the campus, to act as an advisory board to the Council and to elect the NFCCS representative.
6. The setting-up of an Inter-Hall Committee with representatives from each residence hall.

Pictures for Yearbook To Be Taken on Dec. 6

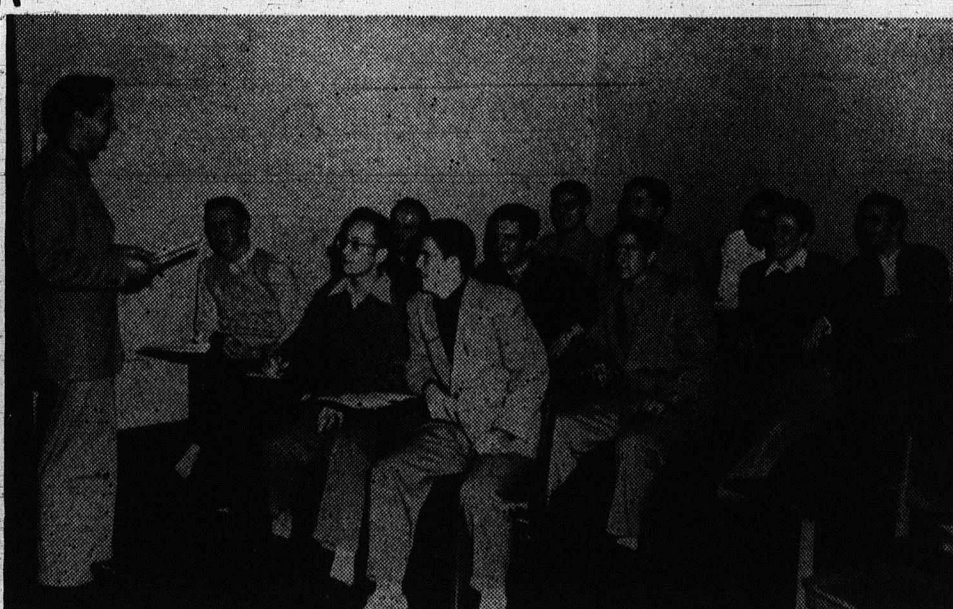

Seniors, juniors and sophomores, plus those freshmen who failed to have their picture taken on Sept. 12, will sit for yearbook pictures, Thursday afternoon, Dec. 6, beginning at four o'clock, Pat O'Neill, Phase editor, has announced. Pictures of campus clubs will be taken by Father Baechle and staff photographer, John Keating. Time and place will be announced in the Daily Bulletin.

CP's IN ACTION

CONSTITUTIONAL MEETING

Two weeks ago, the Student Council, with Frank Pavalko presiding, approved the new constitution which will go into effect at the beginning of the second semester.

We Give Thee Thanks

Etymology, the study of the origin of words, often brings to light, after a great many years, the original meaning of a certain word, or phrase. Though the word itself may have lost much of its intended meaning in the course of time, its etymology will reveal its initial connotation.

The word Thanksgiving is virtually self-explanatory. It denotes humble gratitude to a benefactor, an expression of appreciation for a favor done. In its original sense, Thanksgiving Day was set aside as a day on which to give special thanks to Almighty God for the innumerable blessings we have received. Originated by the Pilgrims way back in the beginnings of our country, this special feast has gradually passed from a day of thanksgiving and prayer to a day on which a worker can stay at home, sleep late, have turkey for dinner.

It is indeed ironical that now, of all times, we should leave God out of the picture. Now, when blessings are abundant and new ones are coming to us practically every day; now, when we should thank God with more fervor than ever before, we forget Him and His blessings, and concentrate on material things.

Perhaps all of us would find it salutary to take some time out tomorrow and try to realize just why we celebrate Thanksgiving Day. As we review the countless gifts that we call our own, we should come to the realization that Thanksgiving is not merely a holiday and a time for feasting, but a day set aside for us as individuals and collectively as a nation to offer our thanks for the blessings and gifts we have received from the Giver of all good gifts. We give Thee thanks, O Almighty God . . .

Hats Off!

As every well-bred collegian knows, the school year is divided into three seasons—Football, Basketball, and Baseball—with a few minor points, known vaguely as classes, thrown in.

At the present time, colleges are passing through the autumnal equinox, leaving the sign of Gridiron and entering the sign of Net and Cage. This is accomplished by heavy coats, heavier snows, and the mysterious appearance of a group of apparently sane men dashing helter-skelter across a smooth, polished floor in yonder gym. This means, my dear Alphonse, that basketball is nigh. This can also readily be seen by the steadily-increasing crowds at the practice floor of the five basketballers and their cohorts.

But while our glances stray, let us not forget the hard-working men wearily plodding into the dressing room for the last time this year. These brave souls, known as the football team, are through with their run and now tiredly pass the baton to the fresh and anxious basketball five, to carry on what has started out to be a good year for St. Joe athletics.

True, a 4-4 record cannot be said to be Olympian or even Valparaisoan, but contrasted with the 1950 showing, it reveals a 300% increase in wins. At this rate, we should win 16 games next year. The victories were hard ones, well-fought; and the clawing Puma left his marks on his victorious opponents. From the 14-13 upset over Loras, to last Sunday's affair with Lewis, the Puma eleven showed themselves true sports and a fine team. Hats off to Coach Gene Fetter and all his husky proteges!

In Our Hands

A typical gripe of St. Joe students in the past has been their lack of adequate representation in their own governmental affairs. This has been justified to a great extent. The present Student Council, of its very nature, cannot begin to act for each and every individual, but must of necessity be the voice of the club members on the campus. This is due to the set-up of the old Council.

Now a solution is at hand. With the passing of the new constitution, the Council virtually voted itself out of existence as a definite group and, by adopting the new document, gives every student a greater voice in personal government than he has had to date.

The provisions of the constitution are too numerous to be discussed individually here. But there are several which vitally affect each one of us. The new constitution calls for direct student election of some Student Council members, and open Student Union meetings, at which all may make suggestions for the betterment of the college and for students' personal welfare.

The proper tools are now in our possession. The opportunity is at hand for us to accomplish what we claim has hitherto been denied us. What we will do with these opportunities is up to us. Let us make the most of them!

★ CLUB NEWS ★

Commerce Club—President Pat O'Neill explained the functions and activities of the club to new members and discussed plans for a field trip to be taken the first part of the second semester.

The next meeting will be held immediately after the Thanksgiving holiday. All students majoring in the social sciences are asked to attend.

Beginning Dec. 2, presentation of scientific papers will be given by members of the club at each meeting. Possibilities for a field trip are being discussed.

Monogram Club—New members of the club will be initiated by a committee of five, consisting of Tom Saxelby, Norb Hummel, Joe Pindell, Gerry Wenzel, and Ed Schultheis.

For active participation in major sports, first year lettermen will receive a block "J". Athletes winning their second letter will be awarded red sweaters. Third year men will receive a jacket and will be eligible for a blanket. Those earning letters in more than one major sport will be awarded miniature trophies.

Don Bosco Club—At a meeting held Nov. 12, it was voted that any member absents himself without excuse from meetings three times in a semester will be dropped from the club. Members may also be dropped at the discretion of the moderator or president of the club for consistent failure to keep serving appointments.

The Don Bosco Club recently acquired a seat on the Student Council and became the tenth campus club to have representation.

Glee Club—The club will provide background music for the movie "Freshman Focus." The Alma Mater will be sung by the Glee Club and the fight song will be rendered by the combined efforts of the Band and Glee Club. Mr. Jim Ameche, Chicago radio announcer, will write the script and narrate the movie.

Annual College Retreat Scheduled for Dec. 7-9

The annual retreat, obligatory upon all students and with the Rev. Hugh Uhrich, C.P.P.S., of Detroit, as retreat-master, will open on the campus Friday, Dec. 7 and continue until Sunday, Dec. 9.

During the three-day period the retreatants will hear several conferences each day and otherwise spend their time in thoughtful meditation and various spiritual exercises.

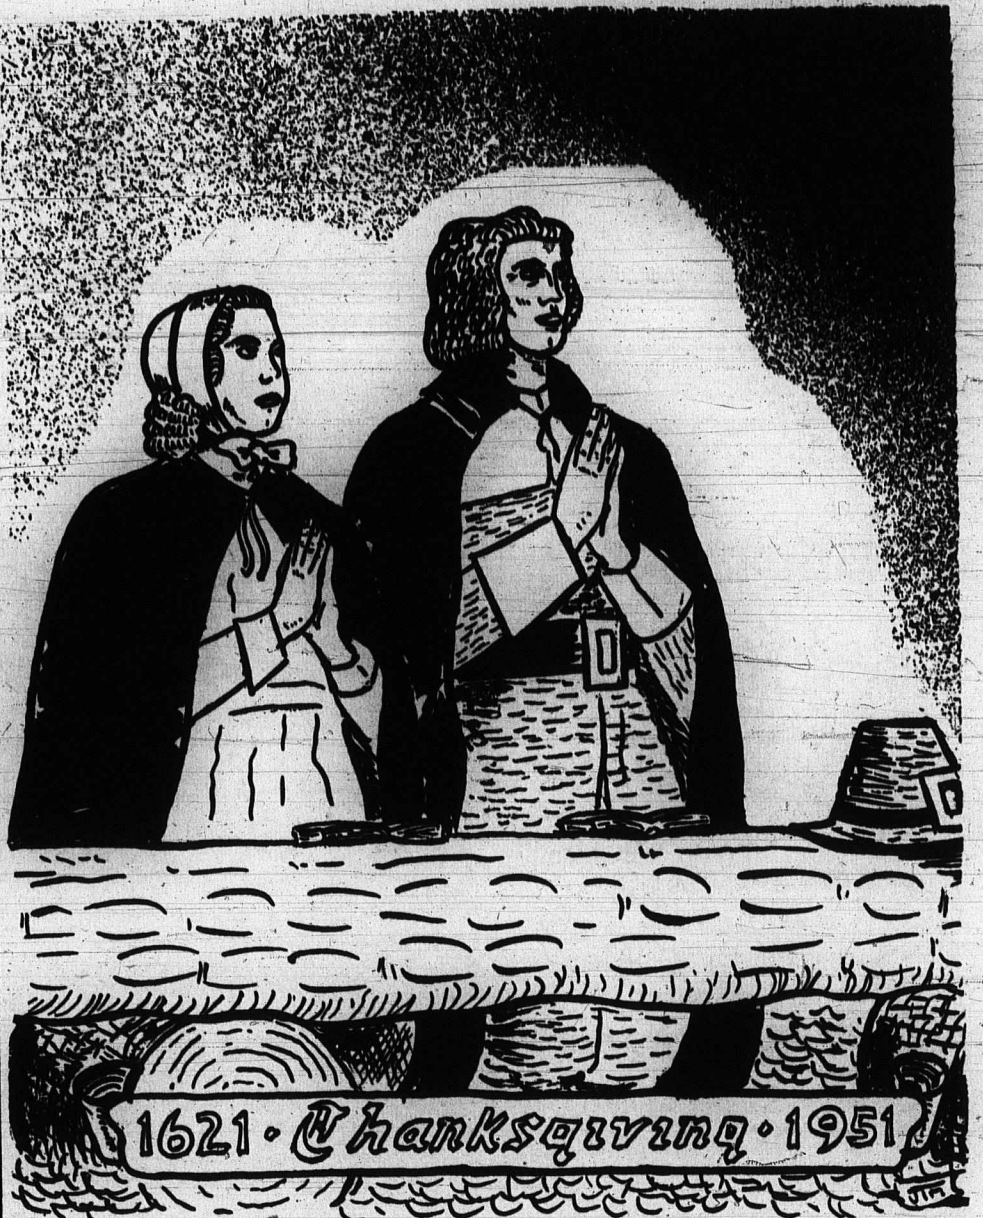

Father Uhrich was a student here from 1925 to 1930, and following his ordination in 1936 was engaged in teaching and parochial work until his assignment to the mission band, ten years ago. He has conducted missions and retreats in all sections of this country and in Canada. He was retreat-master for Xavier Hall students last December.

Prepares for Edition

With plans calling for its first issue to be published in mid-January, the staff of Measure, under its moderator, Father James Birkley, is at present preparing for the winter publication of the campus literary magazine.

Innovations that will be found in this year's two issues are an entirely new cover, designed, Mr. Joseph Gerba, Chicago artist, and the addition of a large amount of student art work.

By FRANK J. PAVALKO

A column that sends a toast to everyone because everyone is news!

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr. Ralph Cappuccilli and the Columbian Players for their sparkling performances of "The Man Who Came To Dinner." The thousands of hours invested in rehearsals paid off handsomely . . . After the final curtain calls, while the people shuffled out of the auditorium, smiles and chuckles accentuated such remarks as, "Delightful" . . . "It had a professional touch." "The plays at this college are superb." . . . "Who does the directing here?" . . . The C.P.'s next major production will be "Othello."

THE SATURDAY NIGHT MIXER found the men of this campus donning their best dress and best manners to meet the belles of St. Mary's, and the belles did ring loud with their compliments of everything and everyone . . . Stealing the evening with a mellow tone was the orchestra under the capable guidance of Lou White . . . A quick conclusion: More of the same!

THE ST. JOE MOVIE called Freshman Focus will be narrated by Mr. Jim Ameche, Chicago radio announcer.

THE GIRLS FROM ST. MARY-OF-THE-WOODS are sending the boys of this college one of their pennants, with the request that it be hung in the Rec Hall . . . Brother John, clear the walls!

FRESHMAN ELECTIONS turned the campus into a picture gallery. To sum it up: Better than last year, but far from the bombastic and colorful elections of 1948.

COMING: A soiree for the Senior Class between the last week in November and Christmas.

INTEGRITY: The men of West Seifert Hall adding "quality" to the campus with their concerted actions for neat dressing, good behavior, respect for authority and consideration for the other guy. We wonder if the other halls on the campus have the guts to label their personalities in a like manner.

SO-LONG FROM CHAMPAGNE AND A VERY HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO ALL OF YOU. REMEMBER TO THANK THE ONE PERSON WHO HAS BLESSED ALL OF US WITH SO MUCH.

The Grapevine

By VINCE BALDASSARI

THE FOOTBALL SEASON closed with this encouraging note from Coach Fetter: "If all our boys return, we should be tops in the Indiana Conference in '52. Valparaiso is losing 18 of its best men, and St. Norbert also will be hit hard by graduation. But, most important of all is the fact that our first-string center and all three of our quarterbacks are returning, and those are the most vital positions in the 'T'."

In looking over the season's games, he thought that we should have beaten St. Norbert's, but that Ambrose, Valpo and Lewis were just too good.

COACH FETTER expressed his gratitude to Father Wuest for rigging up the outside lights on the practice field, and to Ken Meyers, head coach at Rensselaer High for doing such a commendable job as scout.

MORE GOOD NEWS from the field house! Coach Dick Scharf expects much improvement over last year's 7-16 record, from his present basketball squad. He singled out Kacmar, Dwyer, Elbert, Soich, Meyer, Kellogg, Merki, and Pilat for their fine performances in practice so far. The remaining seven on the varsity squad are Drake, Kukoy, Reutebuch, Saxelby, Schroeder, Boff, and Gehring.

THE JUNIOR-VARSITY, who will play preliminary games, have contests scheduled with Ball State, Valpo, Indiana State, and Wabash.

OUR BASKETBALL RELATIONS with Chicago U. and DePaul have been broken off for this year, but we have added Great Lakes to our list of opponents. We play there, Jan. 7.

Four Pumas Named To All-Star Squad By I.C.C. Coaches

With only one game remaining on its slate, the Indiana Collegiate Conference has crowned its first champion, the Valparaiso Crusaders. Scoring a total of 153 points, the Crusaders ran roughshod over four opponents, limiting them to a total of only 29. In second place are St. Joe's Pumas, whose only loss was suffered at the hands of the powerful Valpo eleven.

All-Star Squad Announced

The I.C.C. has released its first All-Star Football Squad. As might be expected, the champion, Valparaiso, and the runnerup, St. Joseph, dominated the selections of the league coaches. The Crusaders landed five men on the first eleven and six on the second team. The Pumas have four men on the first squad, and two on the second. Leading vote-getters were Gerry Wenzel of St. Joe, and Joe Pahr, Valpo's Little All-American. These two men appeared on every ballot.

BULLETIN

The Puma cagers will play their first game of the 1951 season at Fort Wayne, Friday, Nov. 23, when they meet the team of Baer A.A.F. Base.

Xavier Hall Gridders Give Nod to LeClair

By GERRY MIKOSZ

By an overwhelming majority vote Arthur LeClair has been chosen Xavier captain for the inter-hall games this year. Immediately after his selection LeClair named the squad which he says, "will give any hall on the campus a fight to the finish."

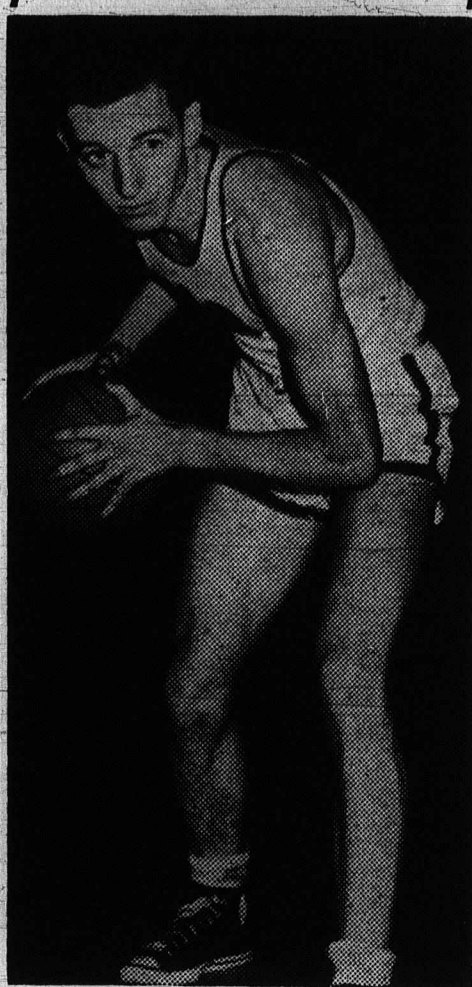

The backfield of the probable starting eleven will be the same on both offense and defense, and will include LeClair, George Jorum, Al Roth, and Frank Rueve. Each may do some passing, but Quarterback LeClair will handle most of the aerial work. These four, ably coached by Father Kuhns, are working on a new type of formation resembling the single wing.

One very encouraging spot on the Xavier team is its rugged line. The offensive tackles and guards average nearly 210 pounds. They include Ed Novotny (248), Bob Novotny (220), Ed Repay (195) and Pete Chiodo (175). On defense LeClair is using Dick Danielak, Jim Hrivnak, Joe Grilliot, and Jim Kinney who will attempt to compel hurried passes on the part of their opponents. Irwin Staab and Joe Cain should start at the ends, with Carl Bobay as an alternate. Floyd Braun will see plenty of action as defensive center, whereas on offense Jerry Rammel will get the nod. Other substitutions are likely, but these men will see most of the action.

Xavier feels that it has to win this year to prolong tradition which states that Xavier has had the plaque at least every other year. Last year Noll eliminated Xavier in its second game, but that was 1950.

Pumas Lose Finale

CAGE ACE

Bob Dwyer, junior forward from Montgomery, Ind., returns after a year in the army to bolster the Puma cage squad. Bob, an excellent rebounder, lettered in his first two years here, and was second in scoring, the year prior to his entering the service.

★ INTRAMURALS ★

The intramural football league ended in a blaze of glory for the undefeated and unscored upon Indians of the American league and heartbreak for the National league champs, the Blacksheep. Playing in frigid weather, the Indians won 6-0, on a pass from Bob Gallagher to Capt. Bob Beaupre. The scoring play took place in the first quarter and the teams played to a standoff the rest of the game.

In the playoff for the National league crown, the Blacksheep defeated the Whiz Kids and Gashers on successive nights to gain the right to meet the Indians. The play of Reid Mackin, Ed Zander, Al Gallo and Bill Gausselin featured in the wins, both played in the snow and cold.

Scheduled to begin shortly, the shuffleboard league now has six teams officially listed in the race with a host of others trying to take part. It will be interesting to see if Steve Boyle and Pete Fenlon of the Mustangs can keep their team in the running for the top spot. These two fellows have played together consistently all year and have yet to be beaten.

So far in the bowling league the Monsters and the Revelers are tied for first in standing, with nine wins and three losses. The complete standings of the league are as follows;

	W	L
Monsters	9	3
Revelers	9	3
Indians	8	4
Maplers	10	5
Kingpins	7	5
Monsters	9	3
Spares	7	5
Alley Cats	6	6
Sluggers	6	6
Schooners	5	7
Greene's Beans	3	9
Strikers	3	12
Blow Outs	2	10

Honors for the week of Nov. 7 went to Lou White for high game with 212 and high series with 511. The Maplers had high series for a team with 2337.

Bill Kun rolled 210 the following week, to take the high game spot, while high series went to

Schubert Shares Honors in I.C.C.

A pair of halfbacks—Valparaiso's Joe Pahr and St. Joseph's Don Schubert—shared honors in the first listing of record plays within the Indiana Collegiate Conference according to statistics released last week by the athletic publicity office of the conference. Pahr's 91-yard kickoff return against Indiana State stands as the longest scoring play on record in this category, and his 27-yard run is the league's best non-scoring run from scrimmage. Schubert's 55-yard non-scoring kickoff return against Ball State leads the field in that branch. He is also found sharing honors with his teammates Tom Paonessa and Ed Schultheis in the passing department. Schubert was on the receiving end of a pass from Paonessa when this combination scored on a 53-yard pass play against Butler and on the tossing end of a pass to Schultheis—a play which went for 37 yards—the longest non-scoring play on record.

Butler's John Riddle ran 85 yards against Ball State to establish the best mark in the league on scoring plays from scrimmage. A complete listing of the top performance in each category follows:

Longest pass play—non-scoring, Don Schubert to Ed Schultheis (St. Joseph) against Indiana State, 37 yards. Davis to Campbell (Butler) against St. Joe, 37 yards.

Ping-pong is due to start on approximately Nov. 21. There will be a doubles league as well as singles, with the winners of both going to St. Ambrose in March to represent the school in the extramural meet.

Lewis Flyers Take SJ for 31-13 Ride

The St. Joe Pumas closed their 1951 football season, last Sunday, losing to a power-laden Lewis College eleven, 31-13, before a Dads' Day crowd of about 1,500. The Pumas fought valiantly, but Bill Stratton, dynamic hard-charging fullback, the passing of John Gianakopoulos, and Bob Hepegan's tricky, elusive running were too much for them.

The Flyers wasted no time before showing why they are considered one of the strongest mid-west small college teams. The first time they got the ball, they scored in just ten plays. Stratton travelled the last six yards, and the score was 6-0, when the extra point try went wide of the cross-bars.

The next Lewis score came when St. Joe fumbled on the handoff and Farinella recovered on the Puma 41. A pass from Gianakopoulos to Tolomeo was the payoff five plays later. This time the kick was good, and the score stood at 13-0.

The Flyers scored their third touchdown moments later, when Gorman fumbled on the St. Joe 32. On the first play Gianakopoulos tossed to End Marty Thuerk for the touchdown and a 19-0 score. The kick was no good.

St. Joe Scores

Midway in the second quarter, the Pumas opened their scoring when Ernie Bidwell pushed over from the Lewis four-yard line. Tom Paonessa was the main cog in the drive, passing to Don Schubert for 28 yards and running for nine yards more. Schubert's kick was no good, and the score at halftime was 19-6 in favor of Lewis.

Opening the third quarter, Stratton took Schubert's kickoff on his own 10-yard line and was not halted until he was pushed out on the Puma 29. Gianakopoulos took the ball over on a quarterback sneak from the six, and Lewis led 25-6.

The Pumas came right back to score themselves, when they took the ensuing kickoff. Paonessa returned the boot to the St. Joe 44, and then hit Joe Pindell with a pass to the Lewis 47. Schubert scooted to the 43 for the first down. An unnecessary roughness penalty put the ball on the Lewis 27 and gave the Pumas added life. Ray Pfriem broke lose for a 15-yard saunter to the Flyer one-yard line from where Paonessa scored on a sneak. The kick by Schubert was good, and Lewis led 25-13.

Nomination and Election Close Frosh Presidential Campaign

The candidates for freshman class president were formally nominated and presented their acceptance speeches, Monday evening, Nov. 12, at a class convocation in the College Theatre, all the political aspirants officially placed themselves in the race, with the exception of Don Merki, who withdrew at the last minute.

As this was written, each of six men was hard at work convincing his constituents that he was the best man for the job. And general opinion seemed to favor John Gorman, Ron Favorite, and John Donnelly, with Tom McCabe, Vince Colletti, and Jim Sloan capable of taking the open spot.

The election was held last night, and the issue has been decided, too late for inclusion in this issue. The men have been named who, for the remainder of the school year, will take the offices of the freshman class, to have and to hold, to love and to cherish.

The laurels for the most thorough and extensive campaign must go to the Sloan-for-President committee. In fact, Sloan's men even jumped the gun by distributing political balloons to each freshman room in the early morning hours on the day of the convocation. And he followed out his zeal with an abundance of well-scattered posters, signs, etc. The striking feature of the campaign, however, was the larger-than-life portraits of the candidates displayed in strategic spots on the campus. In short, it was a good campaign, conducted according to all ethical principles of democratic procedure; and, we trust, the best men have won.

been known to stampee the long-necked characters. A passing train, some loud noise, or even bits of blowing papers may produce the same reaction, and they'll go wildly stampeding for the nearest well, they just don't know—they just stampede. Eventually they'll nearly always meet a fence or some other obstacle, but they continue to run and run and pile up on one another and, unless their keepers act promptly, many of them are quickly trampled and smothered to death.

But even in this, they can't be relied upon. Cases have been known where they all sat perfectly quiet and serene while a fox or other animal, or sometimes even human predators, came up and decimated their numbers.

Puzzled and baffled, by this time, by all these contradictions in the mentality of the birds, we put the question to George point blank: "Just where do these creatures stand in the brains department?" Unhesitatingly he replied: "They're just about the dumbest creatures alive!"

We walked away from the turkey farm with one consoling thought, however: "They may be dumb, but at the Thanksgiving dinner, they make the most delicious nitwits you ever tasted!"

Recital to Feature College Musicians

Two band scholarship students will be featured in the St. Joseph's Music Recital in early December. Ron Gambla will solo "Scena and Bolero," by Bergman, on his clarinet, and Ed Kafka will do the honors on the saxophone with Llewellyn's "My Regards."

Also featured at the concert, under the direction of Prof. Paul Tonner, will be Jerry Blasiesing, cornetist, playing the director's own "Paramount Polka." Piano soloists will include Bill Beuth, Ralph Seidl, Lynn Tabaka, Phil Menna, and Warren Malvick, playing compositions by Sinding, Chopin, Greg, Decinima, and Mozart. At the organ will be Bob Pachorek with Bach's "Prelude in C," and Lou White playing "Will-o-the-Wisp," by Nevin.

Piano duets will star Len DeFabo and Bill Beuth, and Ralph Seidl and Lynn Tabaka. The program will close with Erickson's "Kollege Kapers," as done by clarinetists Ed Kafka, Ron Gambla, and John Griffin, accompanied by Bob Kurber, Harold Brown, Sam Leonard, and Alec Lazur on twin pianos.

St. Mary's Guests At Dance and Game

A mixer on a large scale was held last Saturday and Sunday, when St. Joe played host to 80 girls from St. Mary-of-the-Woods College, Terre Haute. Going beyond the bounds of the usual get-together, Collegeville entertained the Woods girls at a dance, Saturday evening, and a football game, the following afternoon.

Arriving late Saturday afternoon, the St. Mary students were greeted by signs of welcome throughout the campus. Lodged in the Health Center on the campus and in a Rensselaer hotel, they were chaperoned by Mrs. Dick Scharf, Mrs. Gene Fetter, and two St. Mary house-mothers.

A student combo furnished the music for the dance in the Rec Hall, Saturday evening, from eight o'clock to midnight. One hundred St. Joe men were in attendance.

After dinner on Sunday, the St. Mary girls and the Dad's Day crowd combined to bring the attendance at the Puma-Lewis game well above normal. Later in the afternoon the St. Mary guests returned by chartered bus to Terre Haute.

The two-day affair was commandeered by Student Council prexy, Frank Pavalko, Social Committee chairman, Buel Adams, and Miro Pregelj, who arranged the dance.

The unusually heavy snowfall in November failed to halt intramural football play, as evidenced by this shot by Staff Photographer, Jack Keating.

Chicago Fathers Begin Organizing St. Joseph's Club

Initial steps toward the organization of St. Joseph's College Fathers' Club of Chicago were taken last Friday evening, when 17 men of the Chicago metropolitan area, fathers of St. Joe students, met with Father Richard Baird, Admissions Counsellor, in the McCormack Room of the Lake Shore Club.

These 17 men, forming the nucleus of the club, pledged themselves to contact all the fathers of St. Joe students in the area to interest them in the new club. Aims and objectives were discussed, and temporary officers were elected as follows: Mr. Ralph A. Neff, president; Mr. Lloyd J. Harriss, vice-president; Mr. Walter P. Newquist, secretary; Mr. Joseph S. Giuffre, treasurer; Mr. Joseph J. Merki, membership chairman; Mr. Maurice Garvey, constitution chairman; and Mr. Howard Jacobson, Publicity director. Father Baird will continue as moderator of the club.

The next meeting will be held on Dec. 17 in the Como Club.

Clothes Roundup Starts Monday

Nov. 26 through Dec. 1 will be set aside as Thanksgiving Clothing Collection Week at St. Joe's. During this week, clothes will be collected in all halls for Korea and for the expellees and refugees of Europe, the Near and Far East.

With the national drive under the auspices of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, the special St. Joe campaign will be headed by Leonard Kistler. Collection centers will be provided for each residence hall on the campus. Students are asked to utilize their Thanksgiving vacations to help round up clothing which may be used. All garments should be in a wearable condition.

Rally-Quiz Show Held Friday Evening

In the College Theatre, last Friday evening, a Pep Rally-Quiz Show was held in preparation for the game with Lewis College on Sunday.

John Bassett, as Dr. A.Q. fired questions at contestants chosen from the audience by his assistants. Silver dollars were awarded those who answered questions correctly, while a package of gum was given to those who answered incorrectly. Bill Ferguson, with three correct answers, walked off with top honors.

Mr. Gene Fetter, football coach, then introduced the senior members of the varsity football team who ended their Puma football career with the playing of Sunday's game, and Norb Hummel led the student body in a series of cheers.
